AMEND Senate Bill No. 935

House Bill No. 794*

By deleting the language:

Tennessee residents, who are eligible to vote in this state, with at least two thousand (2,000) signatures from residents in each grand division of the state, and on each page of the petition, state its purpose, state its name, and contain the names of Tennessee residents;

and substituting instead the language:

registered voters, with at least two thousand (2,000) signatures from residents in each grand division of the state, and on each page of the petition, state its purpose, state its name, and contain the names of registered voters from a single county;
